

Tar Sands Solidarity Journey: Moscow to Fort McMurray

On August 1 to 7, accompany Wild Idaho Rising Tide on a camping caravan to join First Nations people in the Third Annual Tar Sands Healing Walk.

- Multi-passenger vans will traverse the Canadian Rockies to the largest industrial project on Earth & return along proposed Imperial Oil megaload routes.

Visit the WildIdahoRisingTide.org website for more information.

HEALING WALK

AUGUST 4, 2012

FT. MCMURRAY

CALLING ALL COMMUNITY MEMBERS AND ALLIES.

JOIN US AND WALK FOR THE HEALING OF MOTHER EARTH AND HER SACRED WATERS.

Fort McMurray, Alberta. Walk starting just off at Crane Lake Park - east side of highway 63 near Syncrude's Mildred Lake site.

10am walk starts. Water, lunch and energy snacks will be provided on the walk. The walk is approximately 12 kms, which will be followed by a community feast. Camping spots are available.

Please RSVP to Jesse at 780-404-5315, Eriel at 780-903-6598 or email us at healingwalk2012@gmail.com - RSVPing helps us know how much food and water to prepare.

START the HEALING

